Re: ALLTEL Telephone System FCC Tariff No 1,
Interstate Access Services, Transmittals 49 and 50
Filed in Response to CC Docket 96-128,
Implementation of the Pay Telephone Reclassification

Dear Mr. Caton:

The following letter addresses various questions of the Competitive Pricing Division regarding Transmittals 49 and 50 of ALLTEL Telephone System's FCC Tariff No. 1, Interstate Access Services. The transmittals in question were filed in response to the Commission's Report and Order released September 20, 1996, and its Order and Reconsideration released November 8, 1996, in the above-referenced proceeding. (hereinafter "Commission Orders").

It should also be pointed out that ALLTEL earlier filed a Transmittal 48 on November 27, 1996, in response to the Commission's Order in CC Dkt. 91-351, Operator Service Access and Pay Telephone Compensation. It became effective on January 11, 1997. Transmittal 48 added terms, conditions, and rates for Flex ANI service to Feature Group D and added rates for Originating Line Screening. This transmittal is also discussed in ALLTEL's response.

The questions from the Competitive Pricing Division and ALLTEL's responses follow. Note that ALLTEL's responses also reflect the Competitive Pricing Division's request for additional information which was sent on March 18th.

Q. 1 Did ALLTEL, in the referenced transmittals, file every feature and function that the ALLTEL companies' pay telephone operations are using or that are contained in the ALLTEL companies' state tariffs?

A.1 Yes, with one minor exception. There is one optional feature that is in some of the local tariffs of the ALLTEL companies that was not filed in Transmittals 49 and 50. That option is called Billed Number Screening. It is not a required offering in any state in which the ALLTEL companies operate, it is not offered in every state, and in those states where it is offered, it is a chargeable feature. As requested by the Competitive Pricing Division, ALLTEL has prepared a matrix, Attachment A, which sets forth the optional features and functions provided by the ALLTEL companies and the tariffs (state or federal) in which they can be found.

Q. 2 Did ALLTEL, in Transmittals 49 and 50, file every feature and function that independent pay phone providers have available to them in the ALLTEL companies' state tariffs?

A.2 Yes, with the exception of Billed Number Screening which is discussed in Answer 1. It should be noted that some of the features and functions were filed in Transmittal 48. These features were Flex ANI and Originating Line Screening.

Q.3 With respect to Questions 1 and 2, did ALLTEL file both chargeable and nonchargeable features and functions in Transmittals 49 and 50?

A.3 Yes, with the exception of Billed Number Screening. Also, in Transmittal 48, we had filed a nonrecurring charge to establish the Flex ANI service. We also had included a nonrecurring charge to establish Originating Line Screening Service. As earlier discussed, Transmittal 48 became effective on January 11, 1997. In Transmittal 49, we removed language regarding semi-public and public payphones, added language to define "Payphone Service Providers", and added a recurring charge to include Coin Supervision Additive Service. We inadvertently omitted a page in Transmittal 49, which was filed in Transmittal 50.

Q.4 Did ALLTEL file both existing features and functions contained in the ALLTEL companies' state tariffs as well as new features and functions in Transmittals 49 and 50?

A.4 No new features and functions were filed in ALLTEL Transmittals 49 and 50. The features and functions contained in those transmittals were the same ones, with the exception of Billing Number Screening, in effect in the ALLTEL companies' state tariffs.

ALLTEL did not file Billed Number Screening in Transmittals 49 and 50 because it did not interpret the referenced Commission Orders as requiring that option to be filed in the federal tariff.

Should there be any further questions regarding this matter, please contact the undersigned counsel for the ALLTEL Telephone companies.

Sincerely,
